

Mr. Howard K. Schue
Technology Strategies & Alliances Corp.

EDUCATION

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

M.S., Aeronautics and Astronautics, 1966

United States Military Academy

B.S., Military Engineering, 1964

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

Undergraduate study in Engineering

USAF Squadron Officers School, USAF Air Command and Staff College, Air War College

WORK EXPERIENCE

Technology Strategies & Alliances, Burke, VA

Partner, Executive Vice-President, and Director, 1991 - present

Martin Marietta Technical Services Inc.

President and CEO, 1989 – 1991

Martin Marietta Corporation

Vice-President, Business Acquisition, 1987 – 1989

AT&T Federal Systems Division

Vice-President, C3I Systems, 1983 – 1987

Martin Marietta Denver Aerospace Division

Director of Business Development, 1977 – 1983

The Intelligence Community Staff

Senior Coordinator for NRO and Special Navy Program, 1975 – 1977

United States Air Force

Air Force Systems Command, 1964 - 1975

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Global surveillance, information architecture for the battlefield, technology strategies for 21st century warfare, satellite operations and strategic and technology planning.

PROFESSIONAL/SCIENTIFIC/HONORARY AFFILIATIONS

Air Force Association; Air Force Space Operations Association; American Society of Military Comptrollers; AIAA; Association of Old Crows; Armed Forces Communications & Electronics Association; West Point Association of Graduates; National Military Intelligence Association; Security Affairs Support Association; Air War College Alumni Association; Association of the US Army; Navy League.